

Fireside Author Readings

Join authors
Betsy Struthers,
Lea Harper

&

Florence Treadwell

as they read from their work on Sunday, March 21st, 2:00 – 3:00

at the Bridgenorth Library (836 Charles St.)

Betsy Struthers is the author of eight books of poetry, has published three novels and was co-editor and contributor to Poets in the Classroom. Betsy was the winner of the 2004 Pat Lowther Memorial Award for the best book of poetry by a Canadian woman for her book Still.

Lea Harper is a musician and poet whose work has appeared in Descant, The Antigosh Review, The Fiddlehead Quarry, and several other respected literary magazines. Lea is a Juno nominated songwriter and the winner of the Lapointe Award for Poetry.

Florence Treadwell's poems and photographs have been published in The Canadian Forum, Descant, Event, Grain, Poetry Canada, Pottersfield Portfolio and Prairie Fire. Her book of poems, Cleaving, was published in 1999.