

Fireside Author Readings

Join authors

Patricia A. Stone

&

Norma Harrs

as they read from their work on

Sunday, January 17th, 2:00 – 3:00
at the Bridgenorth Library (836 Charles St.)

Patricia A. Stone, winner of Cross-Canada Writer's Magazine short fiction award, is the author of collections of stories, Close Calls, (1991), Through Any Window, (1996) and All Things Considered (2008). Patricia's work has been included in McClelland and Stewart's Journey Prize Anthology.

Norma Harrs has worked as a freelance broadcaster and writer for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and various newspapers across the country, including The Globe & Mail and The Toronto Star. She is the author of three plays, the novel A Certain State of Mind and collections of short stories Love Minus One & Other Stories (1994) and Where Dreams Have Gone (1997). Norma has been a popular performer at both the Harbourfront Reading Series and the Leacock Humour Festival in Orillia.