

Library Mission and Roles in Community

Popular Materials Library:

The library features current, high-demand, high-interest materials in a variety of formats for persons of all ages.

Life-Long Learning Centre:

The library is committed to providing services and materials, life-long learning, the attainment of personal goals and self-directed education for all ages possible.

Mission

The Smith-Ennismore-Lakefield Public Library is committed to supporting and enriching the ongoing life of the community by providing resources and opportunities for recreational reading, life-long learning and personal development to individuals of all ages.

Door To Reading:

The library encourages children and young adults to develop skills and interest in reading and self-determined learning.

Reference/Public Access Library:

The library provides equitable access to timely, accurate and useful information for community residents through technology and print materials.